

Lying Ass Lorne

Thursday, 01 November 2007

Lorne says that the NDP has been spending ALL the Gas Tax money on roads and new construction. Well, according to the Taxpayer.com, Lorne Calvert is a lying ass.

Update:

Hobbes1970 commented: And if you notice, in the years surrounding an election (2001 -2002 and 2002-2003) the amount that was spent went way up only to drop off once they were back in power ... notice how it has gone up starting last year?

Hmm, Vote Buying in election years? NAWWWW! I'd be shocked.

Another reader commented that the math was wrong, thank you for fact checking. I encourage everyone to download the source document and read it entirely. Here is a link to the complete screen shot from the Taxpayer's PDF document.
